No. W. 905/37

LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY.

PRIVATE BILLS.

EXCERPT FROM STANDING ORDERS RELATING TO PRIVATE BILLS.

100. (1.) All applications to the Legislative Assembly for Private Bills of any nature whatsoever shall require the publication of a notice clearly and distinctly specifying the nature and object of the application, and when the application refers to any proposed work, indicating sufficiently the location of the work, to be signed by or on behalf of the applicant.

(2.) Such notice shall be published in The British Columbia Gazette and once a week in one leading daily newspaper freely circulating in all parts of the Province. The notice in such newspaper to appear on Wednesday of each week.

(3.) When the proposed Bill is of such a nature that it may particularly affect one or more electoral districts, the notice shall furthermore be published once a week if possible in some newspaper in every electoral district affected, or if there be no newspaper published therein, then in a newspaper published in the electoral district nearest thereto.

(4.) The publication of such notice shall in all cases be continued for a period of four weeks during the interval of time between the close of the next preceding Session and the consideration of the petition.

97. No petition for any Private Bill shall be received by the House after the first ten days of each Session, nor may any Private Bill be presented to the House after the first three weeks of each Session, nor may any report of any Standing or Select Committee upon a Private Bill be received after the first four weeks of each Session, and no motion for the suspension or modification of this Standing Order shall be entertained by the House until the same has been reported on by the Committee on Standing Orders, or after reference made thereof at a previous sitting of the House to the Standing Committees charged with the consideration of Private Bills, who shall report thereon to the House. And if this rule shall be suspended or modified as aforesaid, the promoters of any Private Bill which is presented after the time hereinbefore limited, or for which the petition has been received after the time hereinbefore limited, shall in either case pay double the fees required in respect of such Bill by this rule, unless the House shall order to the contrary.

98. (1.) Any person seeking to obtain any Private Bill shall deposit with the Clerk of the House, eight clear days before the opening of the Session:—

- (a.) A printed copy of such Bill;
- (b.) A copy of the petition to be presented to the House;
- (c.) Copies of the notices published, with publication proved by a statutory declaration or affidavit to the satisfaction of the Clerk of the House.

(2.) At the time of depositing the Bill and petition the applicant shall also pay to the Clerk of the House the sum of three hundred dollars.

(3.) If a copy of the Bill, petition, and notices proved as aforesaid shall not have been so deposited in the hands of the Clerk of the House at least eight clear days before the opening of the Session or if the petition has not been presented to the House within the first ten days of the Session, the amount to be paid to the Clerk shall be six hundred dollars. If the Bill shall not pass second reading one-half of the fees shall be returned.

101. Every petition signed by an agent or attorney in fact shall be accompanied by the authority of such agent or attorney in fact, and the petition shall not be deemed to be filed with the Clerk until this is done.

102. Before any petition praying for leave to bring in a Private Bill for the erection of a toll-bridge is received by the House, the person or persons intending to petition for such Bill shall, upon giving the notice prescribed by Standing Order 100, also at the same time and in the same manner give notice of the rates which they intend to ask, the extent of the privilege, the height of the arches, the interval between the abutments or piers for the passage of rafts or vessels, and mentioning also whether they intend to erect a drawbridge or not, and the dimensions of the same.

103. (1.) All Private Bills for Acts of incorporation shall be so framed as to incorporate by reference to the clauses of the general Acts relating to the details to be provided for by such Bills: Special grounds shall be established for any proposed departure from this principle, or for the introduction of other provisions as to such details, and a note shall be appended to the Bill indicating the provisions thereof in which the general Act is proposed to be departed from. Bills which are not framed in accordance with this Standing Order shall be recast by the promoters and reprinted at their expense before any Committee passes upon the clauses.

(2.) Every Bill for an Act of incorporation, where a form of model Bill has been adopted, shall be drawn in accordance with the model Bill (copies of model Bills may be obtained from the Clerk of the House). Any provisions contained in any such Bill which are not in accord with the model Bill shall be inserted between brackets or underlined, and shall be so printed.

(3.) Any exceptional provisions that it may be proposed to insert in any Bill shall be clearly specified in the notice of application for same.

107. All Private Bills shall be prepared by the parties applying for the same, and printed in small-pica type, twenty-six ems by fifty ems, on good paper, in imperial octavo form, each page when folded measuring 10¾ inches by 7½ inches. There shall be a marginal number every fifth line of each page; the numbering of the lines is not to run on through the Bill, but the lines of each page are to be numbered separately. Three hundred copies of each Bill shall be deposited with the Clerk of the House immediately before the first reading. If amendments are made to any Bill during its progress before the Committee on Private Bills, or through the House, such Bill shall be reprinted by the promoters thereof.

In the case of Bills to incorporate companies, in addition to the fee of $300 mentioned in Rule 98, fees calculated on the capital of the company are payable at the same time. Further particulars can be had on application to the undersigned.

All cheques in payment of fees must be certified.

Dated May 1st, 1930.

(g.) To erect, construct, maintain, operate, alter, buy, acquire, mortgage, and dispose of buildings, piers, wharves, canneries, salteries, smoke-houses, and machinery of every description in pursuance or furtherance of, or in connection with, the business hereinbefore specified:

(h.) To buy, lease, hire, acquire, subdivide, become possessed of or entitled to, and to sell, mortgage, lease, let, or otherwise dispose of real estate, foreshore with territorial water rights for fishing, foreshore rights, trawling rights, and fishing rights and privileges, real and personal property, and patents or patent rights, or the right to the exclusive or qualified use of any machinery, appliances, process, receipt, or method of any description, whether patented or protected from general use by any authority or power whatsoever, machinery, warehouses, wharves, fishing-stations, and other buildings and easements in any part of Canada or in any part of the world which it may be necessary, profitable, useful, or convenient to so buy, lease, hire, acquire, or otherwise become possessed of or entitled to in pursuance or furtherance of or in connection with the business hereinbefore specified:

(i.) To acquire from the Dominion Government or the Government of any Province, any concessions, licences, leases, rights, and privileges which may be found necessary or advisable for the attainment of the objects of the Company, or any of them, and to exercise generally all such powers as may from time to time be conferred on the Company by Act of Parliament, charter, licence, or other executive or legislative authority:

(j.) To construct or equip cold storage plants, and to carry on the business of cold storage, and to harvest, buy, sell, and manufacture ice, wholesale and retail, and to deal generally in ice, both natural and artificial, and to utilize ice and other material for the purpose of cold storage:

(k.) To carry on business as dealers in ice, stone, sand, lime, tin, lumber, brick, dry-goods, groceries, and general merchants, both wholesale and retail, and on commission, and to act as brokers in the buying and selling of the same, and to carry on the business of real estate, insurance, and transfer agents; warehousemen, butchers, and meat-packers, and common carriers by land and water; and generally to carry on any other business whatsoever which the Company may desire or may consider capable of being conveniently or advantageously carried on in connection with the powers herein contained; and in connection with the business of the Company to establish branch factories, stores, agencies, depots, and other markets for the purchase and sale of any article dealt in by the Company:

(l.) To acquire water and water-power by records of unrecorded water, or by the lease or purchase of water records or water privileges:

(m.) To acquire, operate, and carry on the business of a power company, and construct and operate works, and supply and utilize water under the "Water Act" or any amendments thereof, or any other Act passed in substitution therefor, or as an extension thereof:

(n.) To distribute, sell, supply or use water-power for mechanical, irrigation, domestic, or any other purposes for which water or other power may be supplied, sold, or used:

(o.) To apply water or water-power for producing any form of power, or for producing and generating electricity for the purpose of light, heat, and power, or any other purpose for which electricity may be applied:

(p.) To render water and water-power available for use, application, and distribution by erecting dams, increasing the head of water in any existing body of water, or extending the area thereof, diverting the waters of any stream, pond, or lake into any other channel or channels, laying or erecting any line of flume, pipe, or weir, and constructing any race-way, reservoir, aqueduct, weir, wheel, building, or other erection or work which may be required in connection with the improvements and use of the said water or water-power, or by altering, renewing, extending, improving, repairing, or maintaining any such works or any part thereof:

(q.) To carry on the business of an electric-light company in all its branches, and in particular to construct and lay down, establish, fix, and carry out all necessary cables, wires, lines, accumulators, lamps, and works, and to generate, accumulate, distribute, sell, and supply electricity, and to light buildings, streets, docks, and places, both public and private:

(r.) To construct, operate, and maintain electrical works, power-houses, generating plant, and such other appliances and conveniences as are necessary and proper for generating electricity or any other form of developed power, and for transmitting the same to be used by the Company, or other persons or corporations contracting with the Company therefor, as a motive power, or for all or any of the purposes to which electricity or electric power derived from water may be applied, used, or acquired:

(s.) Generally to purchase, take on lease or in exchange, hire, or otherwise acquire any real or personal property, securities, and any rights or privileges, fishing licences or leases which the Company may think necessary or convenient for the purpose of its business, and in payment for same to allot shares of the Company credited as such or partly paid up as the whole or part of the purchase price thereof or for any valuable considerations as from time to time may be determined:

(t.) To apply for any Act of Parliament or Legislature, or any other powers or authorities which the Company may consider desirable for carrying out its objects, or to oppose any proceedings or applications which to the Company may seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to interfere with or prejudice its interests:

(u.) To acquire, register, and use any brands, patent rights, licences, and trade-marks or privileges of a like nature, and to grant licences thereunder, and to dispose of the same in whole or in part, and at any time or times:

(v.) To pay for any assets or property, real or personal, or rights, privileges, permits, or licences acquired by the Company either wholly or partly in shares or stock of the Company either partly or fully paid up, or for any valuable considerations, as from time to time may be determined:

(w.) To carry passengers and goods on any of the vessels, boats, scows, barges, and crafts of the Company between such places as the Company may from time to time determine, and to collect money for fares and freight for the carriage of such passengers and goods, and the doing of all such other things as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of the objects of the Company:

(x.) The objects set forth in any subclause of this clause shall not, except when the context expressly so requires, be in anywise limited or restricted by reference to or inference from the terms of any other subclause, or by the name of the Company. None of such subclauses, or the objects therein specified or the powers thereby conferred, shall be deemed subsidiary or auxiliary merely to the objects mentioned in the first subclause of this clause, but the Company shall have full power to exercise all or any of the powers conferred by any part of this clause in any part of the world, and notwithstanding that the business undertaking, property, or acts proposed to be transacted, acquired, dealt with, or performed do not fall within the objects of the first subclause of this clause.

To establish or promote, or concur in establishing or promoting, any other company whose objects shall include the acquisition and taking-over of all or any of the assets and liabilities of or the carrying-on of any business or operation which the Company is authorized to carry on or engage in, or shall be in any manner calculated to advance, directly or indirectly, the objects or interests of the Company, and to acquire and hold shares, stock, or securities of and guarantee the payment of any securities issued by or any other obligations of any such company:

(o.) To amalgamate with any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company:

(p.) To invest its money, and generally to lend and advance its money to any person or companies without security, or upon such security and terms and subject to such conditions as may seem expedient, and to guarantee the performance of any contract by any person or company:

(q.) To borrow or raise money for the purpose of the Company's business:

(r.) To mortgage and charge the undertaking and all or any of the real and personal property, present and future, and all or any of the uncalled capital for the time being of the Company; to issue debentures, mortgage debentures, debenture stock, or notes payable to bearer or otherwise, and either permanent or redeemable or repayable:

(s.) To enter into any arrangements or contracts with any Governments or authorities, supreme, municipal, local, or otherwise, that may seem conducive to the Company's objects or any of them, and to obtain from any such Government or authority any licences, rights, privileges, or concessions which the Company may think it desirable to obtain, and to carry out, exercise, and comply with any such arrangements, licences, rights, privileges, and concessions:

(t.) To do all such things as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects or any of them; and the intention is that the objects specified in each of the paragraphs in this clause shall, unless otherwise therein provided, be regarded as independent objects and shall be in nowise limited or restricted by reference to or inference from the terms of any other paragraph or the name of the Company:

(u.) And it is hereby declared that the word "company" in this clause when not applied to this Company shall be deemed to include any partnership or other body of persons, political, mercantile, or otherwise, whether incorporated or not incorporated, whether domiciled in British Columbia or elsewhere, whether existing or hereafter to be formed.

"MALE MINIMUM WAGE ACT."

ORDER No. 54.

Order establishing a Minimum Wage for Male Elevator Operators and Starters.

THE Board of Industrial Relations hereby orders:—

1. That the minimum wage for every male elevator operator or starter shall be:—
 - (a.) Fourteen dollars (\$14) per week when his week consists of thirty-seven and one-half ($37\frac{1}{2}$) hours or more:
 - (b.) Thirty-seven and one-half cents ($37\frac{1}{2}$ c.) per hour when his week consists of less than thirty-seven and one-half ($37\frac{1}{2}$) hours: Provided, however, that no such male elevator operator or starter shall be paid less than one dollar and fifty cents (\$1.50) when his day consists of four (4) hours or less.
2. That when board or meals or lodging are furnished by any employer to any male elevator operator or starter as part payment of his wages not more than the following deductions therefor shall be made from his wages by the employer:—
 - (a.) For a full week's board of twenty-one (21) meals, four dollars ($4) per week:
 - (b.) For less than a full week's board of twenty-one (21) meals, twenty cents (20c.) per meal:
 - (c.) For a full week's lodging of seven (7) days, two dollars ($2) per week.

The deductions specified in this section shall only be permitted and made when the meals furnished by the employer are partaken of by the male elevator operator or starter, or when the accommodation furnished by the employer as lodging is used by the male elevator operator or starter.

For the purpose of this section the expression "meals" includes breakfasts, lunches, and dinners.

In any case where in the opinion of the Board:—

 - (a.) The meals are inadequate; or
 - (b.) The male elevator operator or starter is charged for more meals than may reasonably be partaken of during his shifts; or
 - (c.) The accommodation for lodging is unsuitable,—

the Board may give notice in writing to the employer of the facts, and may also give notice that the employer shall not be permitted to make any deductions in respect of meals or lodging, unless and then only to such extent as may be specified in the notice, and after receipt of such notice no deductions, unless and except to the extent specified in the notice, shall be made by the employer.
3. That every employer shall, at least as often as semi-monthly, pay to his male elevator operators or starters all wages and salary due to them, up to a day not more than seven (7) days prior to the date of payment.
4. That when male elevator operators or starters are required by their employers to wear uniforms or special articles of wearing-apparel, such uniforms or special articles of wearing-apparel shall be furnished, repaired, laundered, cleaned, or given similar service connected with the upkeep thereof, free of cost to the male elevator operators or starters, by the employers, and no deductions from the wages of male elevator operators or starters shall be made by employers for such uniforms or special articles of wearing-apparel, or for the repair, laundering, cleaning, or similar service connected with the upkeep thereof.
5. That when the Board considers it necessary or expedient for the welfare of any male elevator operator or starter to be furnished with a seat or chair while on duty, the Board may give notice in writing to his employer of the facts, and may also give notice that the employer shall, within the time limited in the notice, furnish and maintain a seat or chair, installed in the location and manner specified in the notice, and shall permit the male elevator operator or starter to use the same when on duty.
6. That every male elevator operator or starter shall be given a rest period of twenty-four (24) consecutive hours in each calendar week, of which he shall be duly notified by his employer.
7. That every employer shall post and keep posted in a conspicuous place in his establishment, such as a rest-room or dressing-room used by his male elevator operators or starters, so that all male elevator operators or starters affected thereby have ready access to and see the same:—
 - (a.) A copy of this Order:
 - (b.) A schedule setting out the daily shifts and intervals free from duty of each of his male elevator operators or starters.
8. (a.) That every employer shall keep in his establishment a true and correct record in the English language of the wages paid to and the hours worked each day by each of his male elevator operators or starters, together with a register in the English language of the names, ages, nationalities, and residential addresses of all of his male elevator operators or starters.

(b.) That every employer shall, on demand of the Board or any person authorized in writing by the Board or by the Chairman of the Board, produce for inspection all records kept by him relating to the wages, hours of labour, or conditions of labour and employment of any or all of his male elevator operators or starters. Records to be produced.

9. That this Order shall become effective on the 3rd day of March, 1938, and be in substitution for Order No. 32 of the Board establishing a minimum wage for elevator operators, dated the 26th day of November, 1935, which is hereby rescinded. Order effective March 3rd, 1938.
